1. On 26 January 1953, five MIG 15 aircraft were observed at this airfield. These aircraft were standing close to the front of the hangars and were partially covered by tarpaulin. They were silver in color and showed the conventional Soviet red star on the fuselage and tail fin. No other aircraft were seen on the airfield itself or in the aircraft shelters.
2. Twenty-five to thirty aircraft shelters have now been completed at this airfield.
